

VANE is the leading angel investment network offering Direction, Connection and Funding to early-stage ventures in the animal health industry.

Your paid VANE membership includes many valuable benefits including:

- Steady and high-volume deal flow on a purpose-built investing platform (Dealum) to allow for asynchronous examination of deals and deal-related materials.
- Live (virtual) regular meetings for pitches from companies, Q&A meetings with companies that intrigued investment interest, membership and educational meetings. Recordings of all meetings are distributed to members for access in the event that they're not able to attend the live meetings.
- Membership in the Angel Capital Association (ACA). ACA is a professional society of accredited angel investors who make up the world's most prolific early-stage investment class. The association is the largest professional development organization for angel investors in the world deploying more than $650 million in early-stage capital each year. ACA provides an insider perspective that can help you make smart investment decisions and offers a plethora of investor education resources and opportunities. (Individual membership in the ACA without membership in VANE is currently priced at $295/yr.)
- The Fountain Report subscription ($495)
- Opportunities for in-person networking at member meetups held at major industry conferences.
